This programme is not about business strategy or scaling - it's about people leadership. Designed specifically for team leaders and middle managers, The programme equips you with the practical tools, mindset, and behaviours to:

- Build a culture of accountability and trust
- Lead with emotional intelligence and clarity
- Motivate and empower individuals to perform at their best
- Navigate day-to-day leadership challenges with confidence
- Create the conditions for team success, no matter your industry or business size
- Led by executive coach Serena Guthrie MBE, this hands-on programme focuses on real leadership - not theory.

If you are responsible for a team and want to become the kind of leader people want to follow, this is for you.
